D. "Document" or "Documents" shall include, without limitation, all written or graphic matter or any other means of preserving thought or expressions of every type and description regardless of origin or location, whether written, recorded, transcribed, taped, punched, filmed, microfilmed, or in any other way produced, reproduced or recorded, and including but not limited to originals, drafts, computer-sorted and computer-retrievable information, copies or duplicates that are marked with any notation or annotation, copies or duplicates that differ in any way from the original, correspondence, memoranda, reports, notes, minutes, contracts, agreements, books, records, checks, vouchers, invoices, purchase orders, ledgers, diaries, logs, calendar notes, computer printouts, computer disks, card files, lists of persons attending meetings or conferences, sketches, diagrams, calculations, evaluations, analyses, directions, work papers, press clippings, sworn or unsworn statements, requisitions, manual& or guidelines, audit work papers, financial analyses, tables of organizations, charts, graphs, indices, advertisements or other promotional materials, audited and unaudited financial statements, trade letters, trade publications, newspapers or newsletters, diagrams, photographs, e mail, electronic or mechanical records, telegrams, telecopies, audiotapes, and all other receptacles or repositories housing or containing such documents, and all other media used to record, in any form, information. A draft, annotated or otherwise non-identical, is a separate document within the meaning of this term. "Document" shall also include any removable "Post It" notes or other attachments affixed to any of the foregoing, as well as the file, folder tabs, and labels appended to or containing any documents. The term "Document" expressly includes all Electronic Data stored on any Electronic Media.

E. "Electronic Data" means the original (or identical duplicate when the original is not available), and any non-identical copies (whether non-identical because of notes made on copies or attached comments, annotations, marks, transmission notations, or highlighting of any kind), of writings of every kind and description whether inscribed by mechanical, facsimile, electronic, magnetic, digital, or other means. "Electronic Data" includes, by way of example and not by limitation, computer programs (whether private, commercial or work-in-progress), programming notes or instructions, activity listings of electronic mail receipts and/or transmittals, output resulting from the use of any software program, including word processing documents, spreadsheets, database files, charts, graphs and outlines, electronic mail, and any and all miscellaneous files and/or file fragments, regardless of the media on which they reside and regardless of whether said Electronic Data consists in an active file, deleted file or file fragment. "Electronic Data" includes, but is not limited to, any and all items stored on computer memories, hard disks, diskettes and cartridges, network drives, network memory storage, archived tapes and cartridge backup tapes, floppy disks, CD-ROMs, removable media such as Zip disks Jaz cartridges, Bernoulli Boxes and their equivalent, magnetic tapes of all types, microfiche, and any other vehicle used for digital data storage and/or transmittal. "Electronic Data" also includes the file, folder tabs, and containers and labels appended to, or associated with, each original and copy.

F. "Electronic Media" means any magnetic or other storage media device used to record Electronic Data. Electronic Media devices may include, but are not limited to, computer memories, hard disks, diskettes and cartridges, network drives, network memory storage, archived tapes and cartridges, backup tapes, floppy disks, CD-ROM, removable media such as Bernoulli Boxes and their equivalent, magnetic tapes of all types, microfiche, punched cards, and any other vehicle used for digital data storage and/or transmittal.

INSTRUCTIONS

In addition to the instructions set forth in Rules 26 and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and S.D.N.Y. Local Rules 26.2 and 26.3, which are incorporated herein by reference, the following instructions shall apply:

- A. Unless otherwise specified, the time period covered by these requests is from January 1, 2001 through the present.
- B. All non-privileged information which is in your possession, custody, or control is to be divulged.
- C. When answering and responding to the document requests, you are requested to furnish all information available to you, your attorneys, investigators, or any other person acting on your behalf and not merely such information as is known by your own personal knowledge. If you cannot answer or respond in full to one or more of the document requests after exercising due diligence to secure the information, answer or respond to the extent possible, specifying the reason or reasons for your inability to answer or respond to the remainder of such request. These are continuing discovery requests. If any of the requested information or material is not obtainable at present or if you or any person acting in your behalf later discovers that any of the information, materials or admissions provided were false, incomplete or misleading, you shall furnish the new information, materials or admissions to counsel for Judgment Creditor. Such supplementary responses are to be filed and served upon counsel for judgment creditors promptly.

D. Where only a portion of a document relates or refers to the subject indicated, the entire document is to be produced nevertheless, along with all attachments, appendices, and exhibits. All documents shall be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business with any identifying labels, file markings, or similar identifying features. If there are no documents responsive to a Request, you shall state so in writing.

E. If you withhold any document for any reason or claim of privilege (attorney/client, work product, or other), please include in your answer the nature of the information withheld, subject matter thereof, the reason you are withholding such information, the basis for any claim of privilege and the name and address of any person or persons having custody, control, or knowledge of any such information so withheld.

F. With respect to any document that you seek to withhold on a claim of privilege, a statement shall be provided setting forth as to each such Document:

- (1) The name(s) of the sender(s) of the document;

- (2) The name(s) of the author(s) of the document;
- (3) The name(s) of the person(s) to whom the originals or copies were sent;
- (4) A brief description of the nature of and subject matter of the document;
- (5) The date of the document;
- (6) The current custodian of the document; and,
- (7) The nature of the privilege claimed.

G. Electronically stored information is generally to be produced, at your option, in either (a) its native file format or (b) in Tagged Image File Format ("TIFF") with optical character recognition ("OCR"). However, Microsoft Excel Spreadsheets and Power Point files are to be produced in their native format with all metadata intact.
